*Wait for the Lord; be strong and let your heart take courage;
yes, wait for the Lord. Psalm 27:14*

Waiting

I wait for the Lord, my soul does wait, and in His word do I hope. Psalm 130:5

PRAYING

And. . . . we're still waiting and praying but working as well.

We've visited with our teens from teen time and they want to wait a bit longer before starting to meet again. The Hellums have graciously agreed for us to wait on Teen Time Retreat for the fall/spring at their ranch.

Working

We've given out and received school supply registration forms, inventoried school supplies on-hand, ordered supplies needed, and will hand out school supplies to students August 8th at the Kerrybrook Apartments.

Aimee and I have been cutting out and sewing masks and bag savers (105 each) for staff gifts for the next school year. They will go out in the fall as we give Colonial Hills staff monthly encouragement gifts.

Our hope is definitely in the Lord. We are encouraged daily as we seek Him, work for Him, and wait to start up the person-to-person ministry work. Zoom meetings are being considered for those who have access to devices and internet connectivity for Kids Club, Teen Time, ESL, and Ladies Bible Study. This does present challenges for our friends at the apartments however as some don't have devices or internet.

*The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the person who seeks Him.
Lamentations 3:25*

Thank you for your continued prayers, support, and patience as we wait upon the Lord. He is mighty and mightily working. We are waiting and working as He directs daily.

Looking forward to continued new assignments.

Gratefully for One Way International, Joyce Velasquez—Executive Director
